This claim is hereby brought under the Federal Tort Claim Act, (FTCA), Title 28 U.S.C §2671, et. seq.:

A. Basis of claim.

Under the legal presumption that the Bureau of Prisons ("BOP"), Federal employee's, will follow their own policies and carry out their duties and responsibilities on behalf of claimant, while claimant is being imprisoned at FCI-McDowell, a Federal Correctional Institution located in Welch, West Virginia.

B. STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Beginning in October of 2013, (and at-least on three Thursday's), during the month of October, the days, the Shelf-salad was being served, during dinner meals, in substitution of Phily-cheese steak and ending sometimes thereafter; Claimant based upon his special relationship with the FBOP and under FBOP'S own written policies, put's FBOP on notice, that federal employee's Mr. John Bowling, Food Service Administrator(FSA), and his subordnates, who Mr.Bowling,

[Attachment "A"]

Initial M.D.

1/ oversees, failed to place labels by-name on the four-inch pans, identifying by-name and it's ingredient's in the "Bacon & Tomato" salad-dressing, after, being removed from their original container's and pouring into the four-inch-pans and placing the pans on the self-service salad hot/cold bar, in the inmates dinning room; and they(FBOP), even failed to put a Asterisk[Star], on the National-Menu(beside the salad-dressing, to indicate that specific salad-dressing contains 'Pork' and it's by products(ingredients). 2/

Moreover, On December 4th, 2013, at approximately, after 5:00pm, during the dinner meal, while claimant was sitting down at the kitchen table, claimant overheard conversation/discussion by other unknown inmates, discussing the subject-matter that the redd-looking salad dressing that was served in October 2013, on the self-service hot/cold bar, in food service, had pork in it. However, Claimant being a practicing Muslim and a member of The Nation of Islam, immediately, sort to investigate what he had overheard.

On December 5th, 2013, Claimant submitted, a "Inmate Request To Staff", using the inmate trulinks system (i.e., e-mail), in that e-mail, claimant inquired and posed the question to Mr. John Bowling(FSA), concerning that particular salad-dressing, that purported to have been served during the month of October 2013; and claimant also, informed Mr. Bowling as to his reason for such an inquiry, informing Mr. Bowling, as muslim he had consumed that particular salad-dressing; and he claimant , was forbidden to eat pork and it's by-products. Consequently, Mr. Bowling, had failed to respond to claimant request to staff, within the Twenty-one(21)-days that are allotted to staff's, for a response. (See True Copy of e-mail/"Inmate Request To Staff", dated, 12/5/2013, attached, hereto, EXHIBIT "1".

1/ See,FOOD SERVICE MANUAL-PROGRAM STATEMENT: OPI: HSD/FDS Number: P4700.06, Date: September 13, 2011, which states: "At the institution level, the food service Department is under the direct supervision of the food service administrator(FSA)", CHAPTER, One Paragraph Four, Page 10); and a. FOOD SERVICE ADMINISTRATOR(FSA). Institution food service operation will be supervised by a food service administrator experienced in food service function in the institution; ensures compliance with bureau policies relating to food service; and performs duties in the standardized position description for food service administrator.(P4700.06,Page 10); "The FSA will...ensures staff are aware of the policies and procedures required to perform their assigned duties". (P4700.06,n.12,Page 14);

2/ "Working containers holding food or food ingredients that are removed from their original package will be identified with the common name of the food". (P4700.06,Page38, n.4).

Moreover, On January 7, 2014, through, the administrative remedy process, claimant , in his effort to get Mr. Bowling(FSA) to respond, diligently sort to have his concerns address, by initiating a request for administrative remedy(BP-8), through the administrative remedy program MCD-1330.16. Again, the filing of the (BP-8), was necessary in order to get Mr. Bowling to respond and address claimant concern's; and thus, to protect any legal recourse in which claimant may be entitle too . However, On January 14, 2014,-in response, to claimant (BP-8), Mr. Bowling through e-mail, sent, counselor K. Stock's an e-mail, in-response, to claimant (BP-8), stating: "This inmate failed to meet the time requirement for filing a complaint with the administrative remedy process. This alleged incident took place in October". (See, True Copy of e-mail/BP-8 response from Mr. Bowling to counselor, K. Stock's. EXHIBIT "2".

Furthermore, throughout, Claimant administrative remedy process, claimant informed Mr. Bowling and the (FBOP), that he nor the 'inmate General Population (IGP) was never informed nor given notice of the October 2013 incident; and it was only through Mr. Bowling e-mail to claimant (BP-8), claimant learned for the first time of the October incident.

On January 28, 2014, claimant then submitted, his (BP-9), appealing Mr.Bowling response, claimant, claiming that the (FBOP) employee's failed to informed him and/or give him 'notice' of the October 2013, incident, when it occurred, as required by 28 CFR 542.12 n.2. and the United States Supreme Court's decision, in Wolff v. McDonnell, 418, U.S. 539(1974). However, On February 3, 2014, without the (FBOP) administrative remedy coordinator for FCI-McDowell, failed to forward claimant (BP-9) appeal to Warden, Bart Masters, for a response, the coordinator erroneously, rejected claimant (BP-9), adopting Mr.Bowling, (BP-8), response,stating:

REJECT REASON 1: Your request is untimely. Institution and ccc request(BP-9) must be received W/20 Days of the events complained about.

REJECT REASON 2: See Remarks.

: You have 20 Days from date of incident to file your request and the incident you are referencing was in October.

(See True Copy of'rejection notice', dated, 2/3/2014,Remedy I.D#766711-F1, attached hereto) EXHIBIT "3".

On February 12, 2014, claimant then initiated his (BP-10), appeal to the Regional Director, for the Mid-Atlantic, appealing the 'rejection notice' and the coordinator erroneously rejection of claimant administrative remedy. In that appeal, claimant claim that FCI-McDowell administrative remedy coordinator, improperly rejected his (BP-9), and the failure of the coordinator to forward claimant (BP-9), to the warden for a response. Nevertheless, the regional director, administrative remedy coordinator also, erroneously, 'rejected, claimant (BP-10) appeal, stating it's reason:

REJECT REASON 1: You did not provide a copy of...
The (BP-9) response from the Warden.

(See, True Copy of, 'rejection notice', dated, 2/19/14; Remedy I.D., #766711-R1; attached hereto), EXHIBIT "4".

Notwithstanding, that the evidence and event's in claimant administrative remedy process, shows, that the administrative remedy coordinator for FCI-McDowell, received claimant (BP-9), then deliberately and erroneously rejected claimant (BP-9), appeal, thereby, intentionally, preventing the Warden Bart Masters, from reviewing claimant (BP-9), and providing a response.

Moreover, in claimant effort to show in his (BP-11) appeal, that (FBOP), each agencies, erroneously, rejected, his administrative remedies. On February 28, 2014, claimant submitted his (BP-11), appeal, through Central office and explained to Central office in his appeal, that Mr. Bowling(FSA) and/or his (FBOP) employee's never informed him nor the Inmate General Population of the October incident; nor gave claimant nor the(IGP) notice of the incident.

However, instead, of Central office, addressing claimant appeal; On April 9, 2014, the administrative remedy coordinator for Central office, also, erroneously, rejected claimant (BP-11), appeal, adopting the same rejection notices as all previous (FBOP) agencies has done, by stating:

REJECT REASON 1: You submitted your request or appeal to the wrong level. You should have filed at the institution...

REJECT REASON 2: You must first file a BP-9 request through the institution for the Wardens review and response before filing an appeal at this level.

(See True Copy of 'rejection notice', dated, 4/9/2014, remedy I.D., #766711-A1, attached hereto) EXHIBIT "5".

Finally, while claimant(BP-11), appeal was pending, before, Central office, claimant received the proof and discovered then through, the Freedom of Information Privacy Act, Request No.2014, 05268), a letter-response, as-respect to claimant request, dated March 24th, 2014, enclosing to claimant, copies of the Federal Bureau of Prisons' records; Specifically, copies of the label's from the Saladdressing that was being served at-FCI-MCDowell, food service, during the month of October of 2013, (See, True Copy of letter-response,to the freedom of information act request, dated, 3/24/2014, attached hereto), EXHIBIT "6"; and also, see, (True Copy of label-pertaining to the "Bacon & Tomato", Saladdressing identifying by-name and the 'Pork' and it's by-product's (ingredients)[i.e., "Bacon Fat & "Bacon..."]EXHIBIT "7".

In addition, See,(True Copy of the Freedom of Information Privacy Act-letter-response,dated, May 9, 2014-in reference to FOIA/PA request No. 2014-06152, releasing to claimant the Federal Bureau of Prisons records Specifically, a printout, showing the year,month,date, and time, claimant identification card was scanned at FCI-McDowell, at mainline, during the month of October 2013. EXHIBIT "8"; and see,(True Copies (2-pages), of --"Inmate Detail Report"for 10/01/2013 thru 10/31/2013).EXHIBIT "9". Thus, these report's placed claimant in FCI-McDowell dinning room, during the month of October 2013, in which the 'Bacon & Tomato', Salad dressing was being served.

*The April 9, 2014, rejection notice,by the (FBOP'S), Central office, constitute a final agency action.

Under 28 CFR 542.12 n.2; 18 U.S.C. 4042; Program Statement P4700.06, Paragraph Four, Page 10,CHAPTER 1, n.2a;CHAPTER 7, n.1-2(Page 32); CHAPTER 8, n.4 (Page 37) ; administrative remedy program MCD 1330.16; Wolff v. McDonnell,Supra; and based upon a special relation with the United States FBOP'S employee's has breached it's legal duties and responsibilities and care that FBOP'S owe's to claimant, to ensure that his right's are protected by (FBOP'S) policies and the law.

C. Personal Injury.

The Nature and extent of claimant injury,which forms the basis of his claim is being that (FBOP'S) employee's acted Negligently, under the color of law and through FBOP'S Negligence and Negligent omissions; Specifically, claimants' personal'injury' is the result of the FBOP'S food service Department employee's, who acted negligence, by failing to follow their own policies, when they failed to place labels, by-name on the four-inch, pans, in food service, during mainline, identifying by-name; and the 'Pork' and it's by-product's ingredients in the, 'Bacon & Tomato', Saladdressing, after being removed from their original containers and pouring into the four-inch pans and then placing them on the Salad hot/cold bar; including the National menu, thus, this consequence of FBOP negligence, caused claimant to consumed the unidentified saladdressing, thereby, their actions, caused claimant to violate his Religious Beliefs and Practices, in which, claimant religious forbid him from eating pork and it's by product. Therefore, under, the (FTCA) renders the United States liable for the negligent acts of, it's employee's committed "While acting within the scope of [their] employment, under circumstances where the United States, if a private person, would be liable to the claimant in accordance with the law of the place where the act or omission occurred. 28 U.S.C §1346(b)(1). Claimants' injury occurred, began and remain's in the State of West Virginia. For claims of negligence the laws of West Virginia create a private right of action.

D. Amount of Claim:

RE: Salad-dressing that were served,not being identified as containing pork or it's by-product(ingredients),afeter being removed from it's original package.

Dear Mr. Bowing/(FSA) It's has come to my attention that the red-looking salad-dressing that were being served on the (SELF-SERVING) line,saled-bar s; sometime during the month of October, as well on other previous occasions-contained pork or it's by-product?

The Four-incl pans(s), that contained the salad dressing or saladbar were never indentied, by name,(as having pork ingredients) after it (salad dressing) were removed from it's original package or content(s).

However, I'm Muslim and my religious preference is the NATION OF ISLAM; and I'm forbidden to eat pork or it's by-products.

Moreover, because of the Food Service failed to identified that particular salad dressing (by name) with a NOTATION that the "salad dressing contains pork ingredients", as a result, without the notice, it caused me to consumed the salad dressing in-question.

I'll await your prompt response!

Re: FOI/PA Request No. 2014-05268

Dear Mr. Damon:

This is in response to your request for copies of Federal Bureau of Prisons' records. Specifically, you requested a copy of labels from salad dressing served at FCI McDowell during the month of October 2013 and the label from the salad dressing that was discontinued, name and title of who discontinued the salad dressing and reason.

We have located 3 pages responsive to your request. These records are being released in their entirety. We have not edited any portion of these documents. There are no documents responsive to the reasoning behind the discontinued salad dressing as everything was verbal.

Sincerely,

Debbie Stevens

Re: Your Tort Claim No. TRT-MXR-2014-05873

Dear Mr. Damon:

Your claim has been considered for administrative settlement under the Federal Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2671, et. seq., and authority granted under 28 C.F.R. § 0.172. You claim government liability in the amount of $1,500,000.00 for an injury that occurred in October 2013 at FCI McDowell. Specifically, you allege that staff were negligent in their duties by failing to label the salad dressing causing you to eat a pork based product which is forbidden by your religious preference.

Investigation revealed that there is no policy requirement that the food served in the dining hall be labeled. Based on the above, your claim is denied. This is a final denial of your claim. If you are not satisfied with this determination, you have six months from the date of this letter to bring suit in an appropriate United States District Court, should you wish to do so.

Sincerely,

Matthew W. Mellady
